ABOUT ME

For several years I have been actively learning various programming languages and I want to develop in this profession. I am constantly trying to improve my skills and competencies required in this occupation. I can easily communicate in English. I have at least basic knowledge of many programming languages. I adapt to a group of people, so working in a team is not a problem. I believe that everything can be learned and I have no fear of learning anything new. I am a fast learner and at a dynamic pace I am able to move from learning to using something already in and for work.
